Feria de Servicios y Productos Industriales Cali (Colombia), May 2008

During the 2nd expo industrial show held in Cali, Colombia (May 2008), Industrial Global Sales, joined our local affiliate HYCO Ltda. in a stand during the event.

James Barnard, Area Sales Manager from Eaton Hydraulics, dedicated to Contamination in Hydraulics Systems and Fluid Filtration. It was enjoyable to have so many technical and sales personnel attend the presentation and watch them be involved and interested in it.

Thanks to James Barnard and Hycos Ltda, in Cali Colombia for the support and help.

Over the two-day event, hundreds of customers stopped by to view our offerings.

Many of the local customers enjoyed the event as well.

The show also gave us a chance to have a one hour presentation from

Technical Training

Industrial Global Sales with the assistance of James Barnard, Area Sales Manager from Eaton Hydraulics and the support of our affiliate in Cali Colombia HYCO Ltda., held a one-day Hydraulics training class in Spanish for all the affiliates of the Latin America territory. Affiliates from Colombia, Ecuador, Peru and Panama attended the event. Many new and exciting information as well of applications where discussed during the day, like Piston pump troubleshooting, Valve selection and application and much more.

Thanks to all participants and our host during this training.
